ABOUT UKRAINE

Ukraine is a country in Eastern Europe. It has an area of 603,628 km² (233,062 sq mi), making it the largest country within Europe. Ukraine borders Russia to the east and northeast, Belarus to the northwest, Poland, Slovakia and Hungary to the west, Romania and Moldova to the southwest, and the Black Sea and Sea of Azov to the south and southeast, respectively

The territory of Ukraine has been inhabited for at least 44,000 years & is the prime candidate site for the domestication of the horse and for the origins of the Indo-European language family. In the Middle Ages, the area became a key center of East Slavic culture, as epitomized by the powerful state of Kievan Rus'. Following its fragmentation in the 13th century, the territory of Ukraine was contested, ruled and divided by a variety of powers, including Lithuania, Poland, Austro-Hungary, and Russia. A Cossack republic emerged and prospered during the 17th and 18th centuries,

Ukraine remained divided until its consolidation into a Soviet republic in the 20th century, becoming an independent state only in 1991. Ukraine has long been a global bread basket because of its extensive, fertile farmlands. In 2011, it was the world's third-largest grain exporter with that year's harvest being much larger than average. Ukraine is one of the ten most attractive agricultural land acquisition regions.

The country also has a well-developed manufacturing sector, particularly in aerospace and industrial equipment.

Population of Ukraine

The population of Ukraine goes up to 45,373,000 people. Ukraine is the 30th most heavily populated country among 183 countries which have published population information.

The female population is larger, with 24,528,252 women, representing 54.05% of the total, compared to 20,961,348 or 46.19% men.

Ukraine shows a moderate population density, with 75 people per square km.

Currency of Ukraine

The Ukrainian Hryvnia is the currency of Ukraine. The currency code for Hryvni is UAH, and the currency symbol is ₴

Language of Ukraine

The official language of Ukraine is Ukrainian, an East Slavic language which is the native language of 65% of Ukraine's population. Russian is the native language of 33% of Ukraine's population and the rest (2%) are native speakers of other languages. Ethnologue lists 40 minority languages and dialects; nearly all are native to the former Soviet Union.

According to Article 10 of the Constitution of Ukraine the state has an obligation to ensure the comprehensive development and functioning of the Ukrainian language in all spheres of social life throughout Ukraine while guaranteeing the free development, use and protection of the Russian language and other languages of national minorities of Ukraine.

Time Zone of Ukraine

Eastern European Time Zone (UTC+02:00) Ukraine, Time zone

Ethnicity of Ukraine

Ukrainians are an East Slavic ethnic group native to Ukraine, which is the sixth-largest nation in Europe. The Constitution of Ukraine applies the term 'Ukrainians' to all its citizens.

Also among historical names of the people of Ukraine

Rusyns,

Cossacks, etc. can be found. According to some dictionary definitions, a descriptive name for the "inhabitants of Ukraine" is Ukrainian or Ukrainian people. Belarusians and Russians are considered the closest relatives of Ukrainians, while Rusyns are either considered another closely related group, or an ethnic subgroup of Ukrainians.

International Phone code of Ukraine

The Ukraine country code 380 will allow you to call Ukraine from another country. Ukraine telephone code 380 is dialed after the IDD. Ukraine international dialing 380 is followed by an area code.

Ukraine is a unitary republic under a semi-presidential system with separate powers: legislative, executive, and judicial branches. Its capital and largest city is Kiev.

Since the dissolution of the Soviet Union, Ukraine continues to maintain the second-largest military in Europe, after that of Russia, when reserves and paramilitary personnel are taken into account.

The country is home to 45.4 million people, 77.8% of whom are ethnic Ukrainians, a sizable Russians minority (17%), as well as Romanians/Moldavians, Belarusians, Crimean Tatars, and Hungarians.

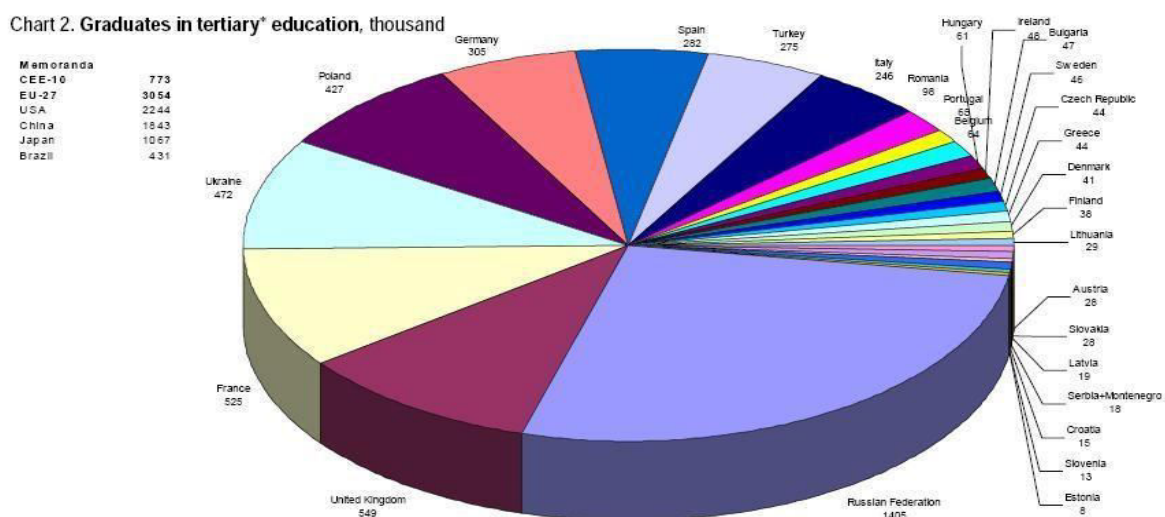

Ukrainian is the official language of Ukraine; its alphabet is Cyrillic. Russian is also widely spoken. The dominant religion in the country is Eastern Orthodox Christianity, which has strongly influenced Ukrainian architecture, literature and music.

Education In Ukraine

Education in Ukraine has a long & a very rich history. Its students, graduates & academics have long been known & appreciated all over the world. Brief historical

Higher Education in Ukraine

Ukraine produces the fourth largest number of academic graduates in Europe. The first higher education institutions (HEIs) emerged in Ukraine during the late 16th and early 17th centuries. The first Ukrainian higher education institution was the Ostrozka School, or Ostrozkiy Greek-Slavic-Latin Collegium, similar to Western European higher education institutions of the time. Established in 1576 in the town of Ostrog, the Collegium was the first higher education institution in the Eastern Slavic territories. The oldest university was the Kyiv Mohyla Academy, first established in 1632 and in 1694 officially recognized by the government of Imperial Russia as a higher education institution. Among the oldest is also the Lviv University, founded in 1661. More higher education institutions were set up in the 19th century, beginning with universities in Kharkiv (1805), Kiev (1834), Odessa (1865), and Chernivtsi (1875) and a number of professional higher education institutions, e.g.: Nizhyn Historical and Philological Institute (originally established as the Gymnasium of Higher Sciences in 1805), a Veterinary Institute (1873) and a Technological Institute (1885) in Kharkiv, a Polytechnic Institute in Kiev (1898) and a Higher Mining School (1899) in Katerynoslav. Rapid growth followed in the Soviet period. By 1988 a number of higher education institutions increased to 146 with over 850,000 students.[1] Most HEIs established after 1990 are those owned by private organizations.

The Constitution of Ukraine (1996), Law on Education (1996), and the Law on Higher Education (2002) constitute the legal framework for Ukrainian higher education. The Ukrainian legislation regulating higher education includes also more limited legislation as well as decrees and regulations of the President and the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine.

Access and affordability

As with most communist Soviet and Eastern European states access to education for the masses was deemed a high priority, this was largely due to the fact that during imperial times mostly only the nobles and the wealthy had access to post secondary institutions. Citizens of the Soviet Union had free access to secondary education and were required to complete at least a junior specialist degree, equivalent to an associate degree in the US. Moreover the Soviet Union exercised mandatory conscription of its male population, however those perusing their degree were exempt from the draft until the completion of their studies, therefore men would often stay enrolled to reach master's degrees to delay their entry into the military.

After gaining independence Ukraine retained the Soviet principle of having a post secondary education system that is affordable to its population. In 2009 Ukraine spent 7.3% of GDP on education compared to the United State's 5.2%. Trade schools (Technikums), which are analogous to community colleges in the US and award the junior specialist degree continued to remain freely accessible by most citizens, students wishing to enroll in a trade school do not need to complete the full 11 grades of school and may enroll in 9th grade. However budget constraints forced tuition charges on University programs. Students wishing to enroll in universities must complete the full secondary education curriculum, during the last year of school they take a placement test which determines their chances of enrolling and whether or not they will have to pay tuition or not. Moreover students enrolled may receive a monthly stipend which is designed to cover their living and school expenses while they are enrolled in college. In 2012 the minimum monthly stipend was 550 UAH for students enrolled in Technikums and 730 UAH for students enrolled in Universities. Students pursuing a doctoral degree beyond Specialist or Master's degree are generally treated in a similar manner to graduate students in the US where they are expected to assist the faculty and may receive pay from the university as they perform their own research.

Although online education is not predominant in Ukraine students may enroll in extramural college, which is the most common type of long distance education in Ukraine and many other former Soviet nations. During this type of enrollment the student continues to work and is given all of their assignments for the semester ahead of time. The student completes the assignments then returns to the university to explain their reasoning and complete testing. Many businesses in Ukraine subsidize their employees who return to peruse a higher degree using this method.

Higher education qualifications

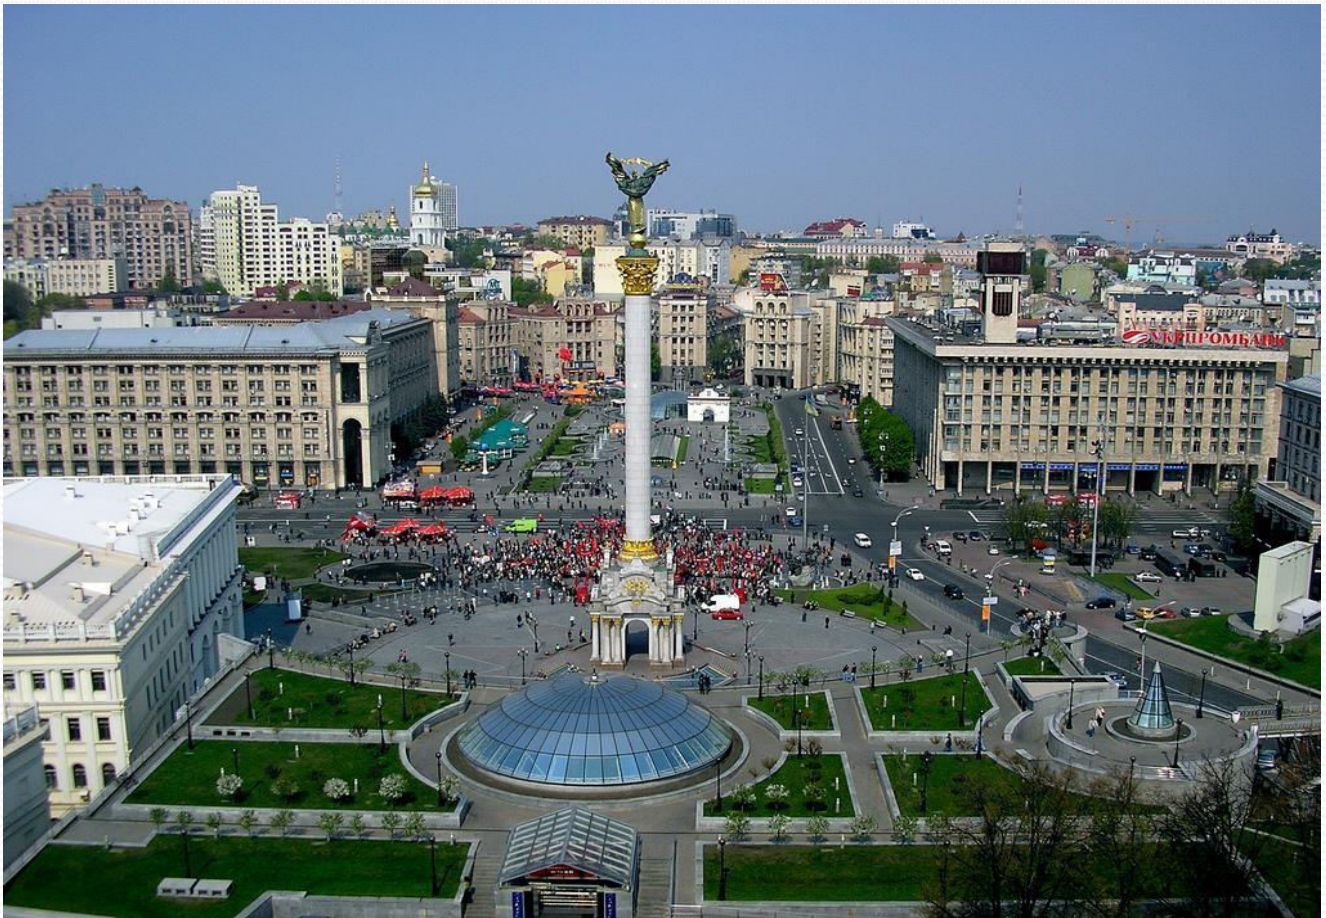

Higher education qualifications combine both academic and professional qualifications. This is a very important feature of Ukrainian higher education inherited from its Soviet past. The State Diploma serves as both an educational certificate and a professional licence. Employment is determined by a match between the state determination of the knowledge and skills required for different occupation levels and the state determination of levels of educational qualification. Hence is the correspondence between classification of educational qualification and that of the occupational structure, leading to the introduction of the term 'educational-proficiency' level.

The Law on Higher Education (2002) establishes the three-level structure of higher education: incomplete, basic, and complete educational levels with corresponding educational-proficiency levels of Junior Specialist, Bachelor, Specialist and Master.

Ternopil city

Ternopil overview

Ternopil or Ternopol (former Tarnopol), is a city and administrative center of Ternopil region located in western Ukraine.

The city lies along the Upper Seret River, 70 miles (about 115 km) east of Lviv. It is an important highway and railway hub.

Population - 217,000 (2013).

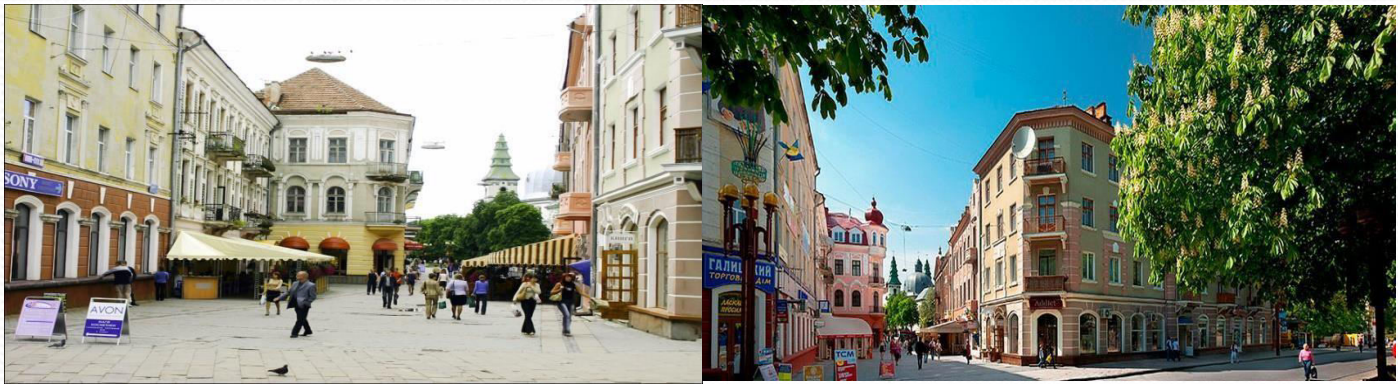

Area code - +380 352; postal codes - 46000-46499.

Ternopil history

Ternopil foundation date is unknown. The first known mention occurred in 1524, when, as a Polish town, it was sacked by the Tatars.

In 1548, Magdeburg Law was adopted. In 1655, the Cossack troops headed by B. Khmelnytsky captured the town. But it remained under control of Poland.

TERNOPIL STREETS

The climate

The climate is of moderate continental type, with warm humid summers and mild winters.

The average temperature varies from 5 degrees Celsius below zero in January to 19 degrees C above zero in July.

The origin of the name

For a long time, the town was called Tarnopol. The current variant of the city name was introduced in 1944.

There are various versions of the city name origin. It is very likely that the settlement was originally called after its founder Yan Amor Tarnovsky.

Ternopil as a tourist center

Despite the fact that almost all buildings in the city were built after the Second World War, the 16th century Nativity and the 18th century Dominican church survived.

The city is known for its architectural and cultural monuments. It is a very comfortable place for foreign travelers. There are a lot of exchange points and modern hotels.

The city lake

The lake, created in 1951, is the main attraction and decoration of Ternopil.

It should be noted that lakes can be found in the center of only two European cities.

Churches

The Dominican Church. The Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary is an architectural monument of the late European Baroque.

It is an impressive Roman Catholic Church with two towers, built in 1749-1779 in the historical center of the city, on the site of an ancient Orthodox church.

The church was heavily damaged during the Second World War; it was rebuilt in 1953. The building was used as a picture gallery of the local history museum.

In 1992, the church was restored and returned to the local community of Greek Catholics.

Unfortunately, the interiors of the cathedral didn't survive. Sagaidachny Street, 14.

Museums

The Museum of Political Prisoners. The Historical and Memorial Museum of Political Prisoners is located in the basement of the former temporary jail detention center of Ternopil NKVD and KGB.

The exhibition is devoted to the struggle of Ukrainian nationalists with the communist regime, repressive methods of the Soviet secret police and life of prisoners in Gulag camps.

You can see cells, torture tools, household items of prisoners. Also, there is a layout of the Siberian prison camp. Copernicus Street, 1. Opening hours: 10:00-17:00, days off - Saturday, Sunday, Monday.

Monuments

The Monument to Bandera. The monument to the leader of Ukrainian nationalists Stepan Bandera was erected in honor of the centenary of his birth in 2008. The monument is located in the park of Shevchenko, in front of the Ternopil Region State Administration.

Other places of interest

Ternopil Pond (Lake). The large pond in the center of the city was created at the initiative of Crown Hetman J. Tarnovsky, during the construction of Ternopil Castle. The area of the pond is about 300 hectares.

The main purpose of the pond was to protect the castle. In addition, it was used for fish breeding. Today, the pond is surrounded by a park. It is a favorite walking place of locals and visitors.

Russkaya Street.

I am aware that the visa fee is not refunded if the visa is refused

I am aware of and consent to the following: the collection of the data required by this application form, the taking of my two photographs and, if applicable, the taking of fingerprints, are mandatory for the examination of the visa application; and any personal data concerning me which appear on the visa application form, as well as my fingerprints and my photograph will be supplied to the relevant authorities of Ukraine and processed by those authorities, for the purposes of a decision on my visa application.

I do hereby confirm that I have read and understood everything stated above. I declare that the information given by me on this application to the best of my knowledge is true. I am aware that untruthful data presented by me in this application may serve as a reason to refuse the issue of Ukraine's entry visa and to refuse me to enter Ukraine even in the case the entry visa has been issued.

I undertake to leave the territory of Ukraine before the expiry of the visa, if granted. I have been informed that possession of a visa is only one of the prerequisites for entry into the territory of Ukraine. The mere fact that a visa has been granted to me does not mean that I will be entitled to compensation if I fail to comply with the relevant provisions of the legislation of Ukraine and I am therefore refused entry. The prerequisites for entry will be checked again on entry into the territory of Ukraine.

Frequently asked Questions

What is a preparatory faculty?

Preparatory course is an educational program with a duration of 6-10 months. It helps students learn Russian or Ukrainian so they can have their studies in Russian/Ukrainian. Studying in Russian/Ukrainian is cheaper than studying in English in Ukraine.

At the preparatory course students study Russian/Ukrainian language and the special disciplines required depend on the future specialty chosen (i.e. Science, Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, Biology, Computer Science, Geography, History, and Literature).

The Faculty consists of two departments:

Department of language training teaches students in Ukrainian or Russian.

Department of sciences facilitates pre-university training in such disciplines as mathematics, physics, chemistry, biology, etc. On successful passing the examination of Preparatory course, the student receives the Certificate of the Preparatory Faculty for further studies at the Medical, Engineering, Aviation/ Flight School, Economic, Maritime & Environmental universities in Russian/ Ukrainian.

Note:

Studying in Ukrainian/Russian Medium is much cheaper than studying in English.

Who will pick me up from the airport on arrival?

We advise you to buy a ticket(s) to Kiev International airport (Boryspil – IATA CODE-KBP) or Lviv Danylo Halytskyi International Airport (IATA CODE LWO) then a Study In Ukraine Today representative will meet you at the airport and make all possible arrangements to clear with immigration, and transport you to your destination.

Please note that you should ask our representative to show you his ID before going with him, this is to avoid any security risks. Please note that Ukrainian Airport authorities do not allow students to enter Ukrainian territory if not informed of their arrival, therefore kindly scan your air ticket and send it to us at least a week prior to your arrival, so that we can complete arrival arrangements and inform airport authorities your arrival time and flight number in good time.

Turkish Airlines, Emirates Airlines, Lufthansa, KLM, Austrian Airline, Aeroflot, Air France and many other airlines access these airports several times a day.

What do I need to have before traveling to Ukraine?

MAKE SURE YOU HAVE THE FOLLOWING BEFORE LEAVING YOUR COUNTRY!!!

You must bring your complete tuition fee as advised by Study In Ukraine Today.

You must have some money for your personal keep up for at least for a couple of months (300USD is enough).

IMPORTANT!!!

If you come in after November, make sure you wear warm clothes and shoes, and pack more as well.

Bring all your documents returned from Ukraine embassy with your visa.

You must bring one year's valid air ticket with an open return date.

Do not forget to inform Study In Ukraine Today about your arrival at least 4-5 days prior to your arrival or scan your air ticket and visa so that our representative welcomes you at the Ukrainian airport. Airport immigration in Ukraine can deport students without notice, if nobody is present officially to pick the student.

Do not hesitate to write to us for any further details.

What are the visa requirements?

The submission of documents for student visas starts at the embassies each year from May 15. (Visa issued will be valid from 15th of August)

Requirements are:

-Passport with expiry date of at least 6 months after the end of visa validity and at least 3 blank pages and photocopy of first page of passport.

Visa application form, printed or written in block letters. It must be filled in carefully, clearly, precisely and signed personally by the applicant.

-Two recent colour pictures with a white background (30x40mm).

-Original birth certificate and a copy legalized by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of issuing country.

-Original invitation letter and its photocopy. When you receive an invitation letter make sure your name, date of birth and passport number are identical to those indicated in the passport you submit for the visa.

-Original school-leaving certificate of secondary school or college with enclosed statement of results (transcript of marks received) and their copies legalized by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of issuing country. The Ukrainian Embassy translates the document into Ukrainian and legalizes it.

-Results of HIV/AIDS test legalized by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of issuing country. The Ukrainian Embassy translates the document into Ukrainian and legalizes it.

-Ticket reservation for Ukraine
